Brief Introduction

I. Content

Data in this chapter show the basic conditions of the people's livelihood in Shandong Province, including income and expenditure of the households, employment, housing condition, consumption and possession of the major consumer goods, etc.

II. Source of Data

Data in this chapter over the years are collected by the sample survey on urban and rural households. Since 2013, Integrated Household Survey has been launched, so data of 2013 collected by annual survey of household incomes and living conditions may different from those of previous years due to the change of indexes and statistics scopes. All data are prepared and provided by the Division of Household Income and Expenditure Survey of the National Bureau of Statistics in Shandong.
